OREM ACCOUNTING FIRM JOINS MSI GLOBAL ALLIANCE

OREM, UT – AUGUST 8, 2011: Squire & Company, PC is pleased to announce their membership with MSI Global Alliance to strengthen their international reach. Headquartered in London, MSI Global Alliance is a group of 250 professional firms around the globe that have knowledge of local markets, international experience, and a commitment to personal service and value that cannot be matched by the larger firms. Squire is excited to leverage this new relationship in conjunction with existing relationships to continue assisting their multinational clients in the global marketplace.

Squire & Company, PC enters an elite field as they team up with MSI Global Alliance. “We are excited that Squire has been chosen to be part of this organization” said Tim Larsen, Managing Partner for Squire. “Our partner group is confident that this relationship with MSI will dramatically improve business dealings with our international clients.”

Squire & Company, PC is an independent accounting firm specializing in local, national, and international audit, tax, technology, and business advisory related services.
